Dear Mr. Sandoval:

I have received your letter about the assault you suffered in Pelican Bay. It would be impossible for me represent you for many reasons, but mostly because my schedule would just not allow it.

As you are probably aware, you need to file a state tort claim within six months of your injury before you can sue any of the officers. You also have to fully exhaust the appeals process by filing your 602. If they "lose" or do not respond to your 602, then file a 602 about that. The courts are throwing out a lot of cases because of the failure to exhaust, but if they see you did everything possible to complete the 602 process, then you stand a good chance of being able to pursue a federal court action.

If you need a tort claim form let me know, and if you get to the point where you want to file a complaint, let me know also and I can send you a sample.

Take care.

Very truly yours,

Robert Navarro

Dear Mr. Sandoval,

I received your letter of May 1, 2007. For several reasons, I am unable to be of assistance to you. The passage of the Prison Litigation Reform Act (PLRA) in 1996, made it extremely difficult to represent prisoners. In addition, I receive on average 10 letters from prisoners each week and while many have compelling claims, it is not possible to represent all of them, nor can I choose among them.

As a result of these and other limitations, I confine my civil rights work to representing the families of prisoners, not prisoners themselves. At the moment, I am representing several families in medical and psychiatric abuse cases which resulted in death and I cannot take on new cases without undermining the cases I already have.

Please forgive these restrictions on my practice. I am sorry I am unable to assist you.

Please let me know if you are going to be released from prison shortly. If you are no longer in prison, the PLRA does not apply to you.

With my regards,

Catherine Campbell

Dear Mr. Sandoval:

I have received and reviewed your letter of February 12, 2008. I regret to inform you that at this time our office is not in a position to take on your case. Simply because we are unable to assist you does not mean another attorney would be unable to assist you. I suggest you contact another attorney to see if they can assist you.

There are a few important dates that you should keep in mind. Based on your letter, it seems that individuals responsible are all California State employees. In order to file a lawsuit for a violation of State rights (such as assault and battery), you would need to first file a claim with the state agency responsible for the conduct within six (6) months of the incident. Upon rejection of that claim, you could then file a lawsuit.

Your letter also indicates potential constitutional violations. Generally, you must file a lawsuit within two (2) years of the incident. If this happened while you were in jail, you have an additional two (2) years to file a lawsuit for constitutional violations.

Failure to follow the above deadlines will result in your losing your right to recovery damages for any injuries you suffered. For that reason, I urge you to contact other attorneys.

Thank you for considering this office.

Sincerely,

RE: Assault

Dear Mr. Sandoval:

Thank you for your letter of March 3, 2008 and received in our office March 10, 2008.

There are various reasons why I cannot accept your case.

First, my practice is limited to representation of persons with claims under the Longshore and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act.

Next, I am making plans for my retirement and not accepting new cases of any kind.

You should be aware that there are deadlines within which you must take action. These time deadlines can be surprisingly short. If you miss the time deadline, your claim is forever barred. Therefore, if you wish to pursue this matter you should contact another attorney as soon as possible.

This office will take no action on your behalf.

Thank you for thinking of me. Good luck.

Sincerely,

Alfred Sandoval, D #61000

Dear Mr. Sandoval:

Thank you for seeking legal representation with our law firm.

After reviewing your information, we have determined, unfortunately, we cannot take your case. I recommend that you consult with other attorneys.

I want to emphasize that the fact that we have decided not to take your case does not in any way reflect upon the merits of your case, and encourage you to seek other opinions. I also want to remind you that all cases have statutes of limitations that limit the amount of time within which a lawsuit may be brought. Therefore, I encourage you to seek legal counsel as soon as possible if you do want to pursue your case.

Very truly yours,
